

Relieve Your Indigestion With A Laxative

Dyspeptics know that indigestion is accompanied by constipation, and that until the bowels can be regulated so they will act freely and naturally every day at a stated time, swallowing dyspepsia tablets is of little use.

A great and growing number of sufferers from this trouble find immediate and then permanent relief by the use of a combination of simple laxative herbs with pepsin sold by druggists under the name of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. The laxative herbs act on the bowels and the pepsin and extracts on the digestive tract, forming an exceptionally effective laxative- tonic.

It is a combination that has been found wonderfully helpful in indigestion, constipation, biliousness, headaches, bad breath, belching and gas on the stomach. A small dose is all that is required.

The druggist will refund your money if it fails to do as promised.

PRICE AS ALWAYS

In spite of greatly increased laboratory costs due to the war, by sacrificing profits and absorbing war taxes we have maintained the price at which this family laxative has been sold by druggists for the past 25 years. Two sizes—50c and $1.00.

OUST GERMANS FROM SHANTUNG

Supreme Council of Peace
Conference Virtually
So Decided

LEAVING DISPUTE AS TO TSING-TAO RIGHTS

China Holds That the Territory Reverts to Her by German Expulsion

Paris, March 14 (By the Associated Press).—The supreme council of the peace conference has virtually decided to include in the preliminary treaty of peace a requirement that Germany shall relinquish her leasehold of Tsing-Tao and all properties and concessions on the Shantung peninsula.

No attempt, it is understood, will be made at present to render a decision as to the ultimate possession of Germany's rights, which is the subject of a controversy between the Japanese and Chinese delegations in Paris. The former holds that Japan acquired the leasehold by right of conquest over the German forces there, although she is willing to permit the ultimate status of the Shantung peninsula to be determined by the peace conference. China contends the lease was automatically cancelled by the expulsion of the Germans, who originally acquired it by force, and that the property reverts to China.

It is expected that the final adjustment will be made in the definitive peace treaty or by the league of nations, unless in the meantime, the principles of the controversy reach a mutually satisfactory agreement.

FOR DEPENDENT CHILDREN.

It Is Hoped They Will Be Separated from Delinquent Children.

At an informal meeting of representatives of different religious communities in Vermont, the undersigned desire to express their strong opinion that the care of dependent children in the state should be entirely separated from the care of delinquent children; and with a view to this, they urge that the present legislature amend the existing laws so as to make it impossible for judicial authorities to commit dependent children to the Vermont industrial school; and they earnestly hope that an adequate and liberal provision may be made for the care of dependent children.

PALESTINE JEWRY CALLED IN ASSEMBLY

All Jews of Both Sexes Who Have Reached Their Twentieth Year Are Entitled to Vote and Those 24 Are Eligible for Election.

Jerusalem, March 12 (Correspondence of the Associated Press).—A call to a constituent assembly of Palestine Jewry approved by the British government in April, 1918, has been sent out by the Zionist commission in Palestine, it was announced here to-day.

All Jews of both sexes who have reached their twentieth year are entitled to vote and all who have reached their twenty-fourth year are eligible for election. One of the other qualifications necessary for candidates is that they will be able to read, write and speak Hebrew.

The provisional constituent assembly elected Dr. Chaim Weizmann and Mr. Nahum Sokolow, the Zionist leaders, to represent them at the peace conference. It instructed its delegates to urge: "That the powers should nominate Great Britain as their representative or trustee and should confer on it the government of Palestine, with a view to aiding the Jewish people in building its commonwealth."

"That an executive council should be nominated by Great Britain in agreement with the World Zionist organization representing the entire Jewish people."

There has been great activity amongst the Jews of Palestine since General Allenby freed it from the Turks. Efforts are being concentrated on procuring agricultural machinery, the purchase of livestock, and development of credit facilities, while the American Zionist medical unit is establishing hospitals and medical aid stations in the colonies. Everywhere seems inspired with the hope that a splendid era of prosperity, of big agricultural, industrial and commercial enterprises are about to open out.

GET READY FOR EXTRA SESSION

Republican Steering Committee in House Maps Out Business

APPROPRIATION BILLS ARE COMING FIRST

Solution of R. R. Question and Adoption of Merchant Marine Policy Is Next

Washington, D. C., March 14.—Legislation expected to come before the next Congress when it is reconvened in extra session by President Wilson was considered at a meeting to-day of the Republican steering committee of the next House. The members of the committee are Representatives Winslow, Massachusetts; Longworth, Ohio; Moore, Pennsylvania; Madden, Illinois, and Dunn, New York. Representative Mondell, Wyoming, the recently chosen Republican floor leader, is chairman ex-officio of the committee.

Members of the committee said the first consideration probably would be given upon the reconvening of Congress to the appropriation bills, which the last Congress failed to pass. Other legislation, it was said, would include solution of the railroad question and adoption of a merchant marine policy. At to-day's meeting the committee hoped to draw up an outline of probable legislation.

PRISON REFORM AND CHILD WELFARE TALKED

Dr. Hastings H. Hart, Secretary of Russell Sage Foundation, Addressed Audience at State House Last Evening.

Dr. Hastings H. Hart, secretary of the Russell Sage Foundation of New York, and recognized as one of the leading authorities in the country on prison reform and child welfare, talked at the Vermont legislature last evening on these two subjects to an audience which filled to capacity the reception room at the State House. James B. Estee of Montpelier presided, and preliminary remarks were made by W. H. Jeffrey, state probation officer, and Frank Tracy, sheriff of Washington county.

Dr. Hart praised the work of Sheriff Tracy in instituting in Montpelier and Washington county the plan of putting the prisoners out to work, where work is to be found and thus making them pay for themselves. The speaker said that Sheriff Tracy was a pioneer in this line of prison reform and that many other states and districts were now copying the Montpelier plan and that Sheriff Tracy had already made a name for himself as an authority on prison reform throughout the country.

Speaking of state's prison at Windsor, Dr. Hart said that the prison is very well kept up and well managed. Coming directly from a visit there, he pointed out the defects and made the following recommendations: That the women should be kept by themselves (the present system of keeping them being very bad, both for the women and the men); that a woman's reformatory should be established and the further away from the men's place of detention, the better; that this reformatory should not be in the nature of a prison, but simply a farm, with cottages, where the women could raise farm products and be self-supporting.

Dr. Hart attacked vigorously the contract system under which the work of the prisoners is let out to contractors. He maintained that the firms which are making these contracts are "working the state."

"Every day you are forcing your prisoners to tell 1,200 lies," said Dr. Hart, "when you allow the shirts made by your prisoners to go out with the guarantee that they are made in Milwaukee."

As a remedy for this situation, the speaker suggested that the state buy four Ford trucks, carrying ten men each, and transport the inmates of the prison to such places in the nearby country where labor might be needed, thus enabling the farmers and others to get help when they needed it and helping the prisoners to earn somewhere near what they are worth, rather than "disgracing their manhood and keeping up unfair competition by allowing them to work in these days for the sum of 67 cents a day."

Dr. Hart favored the consolidation plan which is being worked out for the state's prison and the house of correction, urged the reconstruction of the hospital at Windsor, and suggested that the buildings now being used by the house of correction at Rutland might be handy as a branch of the home for the feeble-minded.

With reference to the problem of the dependent child in Vermont, Dr. Hart endorsed the action just taken by the various religious communities of the state in asking that dependent children hereafter be separated from delinquent children in their care. He maintained that dependent children should not be sent to the industrial school at Vergennes, but should be taken care of in some other way, preferably by the "placing" method, where good homes could be found.

The speaker declared that Massachusetts is every year sending her overflow of dependent children into Vermont homes to be cared for, and that there are plenty of good homes in the state, which should be used to take care of Vermont's dependent children, before we tackle the problems of Massachusetts.
